

UPDATE ON SAN JUAN CAS VISIT BOULDER, JULY 16 - 18

We have word from John Sanders, President of San Juan CAS, that 6 members of their chapter will accompany us on Jean Kindig's tour of 4th of July Valley Archaeological sites on Saturday, July 17. On Saturday evening, after the hike, IPCAS will host a potluck in honor of the group at 7 PM in the home of Ann & Russ Hayes. On Sunday morning our guests will tour the Swallow Site at Ken Caryl Ranch on their way back to Durango. John has told me that the San Juan Chapter hopes to be better able to locate high altitude sites in their own mountain regions after acquainting themselves with ours, and learning what to look for.

One of the aims of CAS is sharing and interaction among chapters throughout the state. Let's make this a great adventure for the San Juan Chapter, as well as for ourselves. We still need volunteers to house one or two guests on Friday and Saturday, and provide breakfast on Saturday morning before the hike up to the pass. They will offer return hospitality in their own archaeologically-rich environs at some future time. Call me if you can assist with housing and/or plan to attend the potluck. Ann Hayes, 494-3773.

Tour Leaders Needed For Rock Creek Site

Volunteers are needed to lead tours of the Rock Creek Site.

You can volunteer as a tour leader as well as a field worker. It is requested that field workers volunteering as tour leaders do so during times other than their field work time.

Ann Hayes, 494-3773, had graciously agreed to be the tour coordinator for the project. Please contact her to volunteer. Training for tour leaders will be arranged prior to the beginning of tours.

The field work schedule has five Saturdays and three Sundays scheduled (see schedule calendar). It is hoped that some volunteers can work during week days as well as weekends.

All volunteers are requested to attend the orientation workshop at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, July 15, at the Boulder Police Headquarters, 1805 33rd Street (north of Arapahoe).
