The Calumet • December 2020

Greetings from IPCAS! We wish happy holidays to all. I'd like to thank Reid Farmer for his presentation last month to IPCAS on the Desert Training Center, a temporary WWII Army training facility in Riverside County, California. If you missed last month's presentation, you can check out the presentation recording on our YouTube channel. I'm looking forward to Mark Willis's presentation on photogrammetry and 3D data on Thursday, December 10. I hope you enjoy this bonus lecture from Mark. This is our last event for the calendar year. We'll be back in January with a new lecture series and hopefully post-pandemic in-person events.

In chapter news, the prepared officer slate was voted on and approved for 2021 at last month's meeting. Your current officers are continuing in their positions for another year. We welcome those with interest in helping coordinate IPCAS activities, classes, and outreach. I'd like to take a moment to thank you all who have stuck with IPCAS and all who have kept the chapter going.

Finally, I want to remind IPCAS members with Senior memberships that senior membership categories will be discontinued in 2021. IPCAS values your membership in our chapter and is offering to cover the difference in your cost in converting your 2021 membership to an Individual or Family membership. Please contact us at indianpeaksarchaeology@gmail.com if you'd like to take advantage of this offer. You can contact any of the IPCAS Board members through the form on the website.

Stay safe out there and happy holidays!

What We're Watching

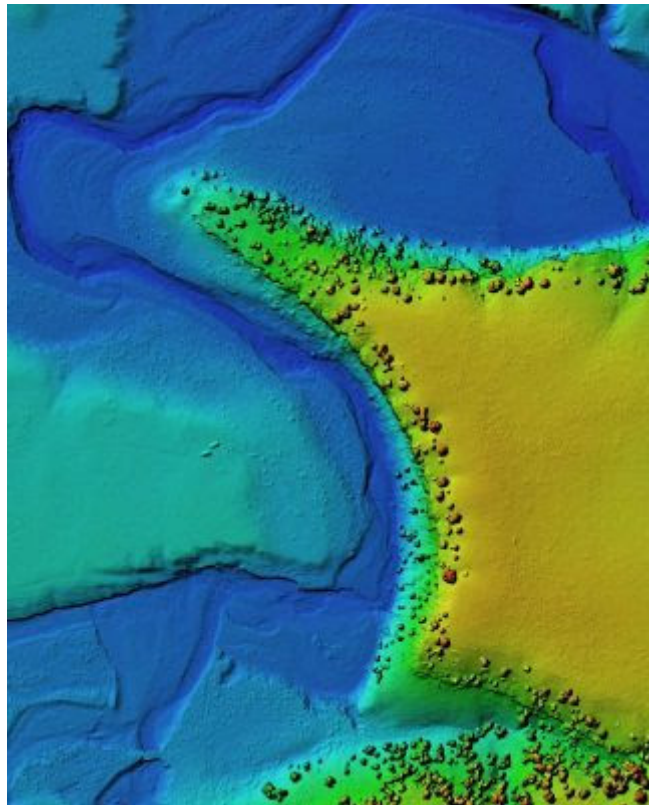

Instead of the monthly edition of "What We're Reading", we hope you enjoy a new take on the session called "What We're Watching" that features video content.

- PRE-WATCHING MATERIAL FOR KIMMERER ON TUESDAY: Happening tomorrow! Don't miss Dr. Robin Wall Kimmerer's Lecture for Environmental Futures from the University of Colorado Museum of Natural History. If you haven't read Braiding Sweetgrass, take an hour to listen to dialog between Drs. Natalie Avalos and Clint Carroll on indigenous ecological perspectives.
- LIVE FROM OTTAWA: On Thursday, December 17, IPCAS members Dr. Chris Kerns and Allison Kerns will present on their excavations of Iron Age deposits at Read's Cavern (Somerset, England). You can watch via Facebook Livestream.
- GOING ACROSS THE SEA: Dr. Sarah James shared the history of coastal Dalmatia in Croatia and a new archaeological project from University of Colorado set to generate new insights into this part of the Adriatic Sea.
- BACK IN THE BEFORE TIME: Back in August, Holly McKee-Huth and Rebecca Simon \(History Colorado\) shared a resource

sensitivity model and results from 2019's PAAC survey at Lone Mesa State Park.

- GET YOUR BOOTS ON: In a joint production by Crow Canyon Archaeological Center and Pueblo Archaeological & Historical Society, Dr. Todd Surovell presented research on some of the oldest houses in the Americas at Barger Gulch in Middle Park. Don't miss Doug Baxter's cameo!
