The Calumet • October 2020

Greetings from IPCAS! We have good news and sad news. Starting with the good: the 85th Annual Meeting of the Colorado Archaeological Society is complete! Our chapter hosted CAS's virtual conference, complete with workshops, speakers, and a keynote address. Recordings of the programming is available for viewing on IPCAS's YouTube channel. As of today, the Alice Hamilton Scholarship Fund should receive over $1,500 from funds raised as part of the conference. Additionally, no vote was held on the question of raising dues per membership from the Colorado Archaeological Society. The issue was tabled for a vote at a future special meeting. The CAS Board of Directors voted to eliminate senior memberships starting in 2021. While this change affects IPCAS members within a few short months, the IPCAS Executive Board is considering alternatives to offset the increase in membership cost to those affected members. Please let the IPCAS Executive Board know your feelings on the matter before it's voted upon on November 5. You can contact any of the IPCAS Board members through the form on the website or by emailing indianpeaksarchaeology@gmail.com.

We're looking forward to Dr. Bonnie Clark's presentation on her new book, Finding Solace in the Soil: An Archaeology of Gardens and Gardeners at Amache, on Thursday (October 15). Hope to see you there! You can also get copies of Bonnie's book through upcolorado.com.

Virtual PAAC courses are here! Check out the PAAC course info further down on how to sign up and what courses are available.

Finally, I wanted to share the sad news of Tom Hoff's passing. While Tom wasn't part of IPCAS, his work with CAS impacted all chapters. Please send your condolences to Terri Hoff or contact indianpeaksarchaeology@gmail.com for information on where to send a card. If you're inspired to help out Tom's family, their fundraiser to cover Tom's expenses is still open.

Stay safe out there and take care of each other.

What We're Watching

Instead of the monthly edition of "What We're Reading", we hope you enjoy a new take on the session called "What We're Watching" that features video content.

- CHANGE OVER TIME: Dr. Scott Ortman shared what he's learned over six years of partnership with the Pueblo of Pojoaque in a recent presentation through the School for Advanced Research (SAR), called, Coming Together: Pueblo History in the Pojoaque Area. Shout out to Scott's lab group!

- IT'S ALL ON TAPE: Last month, IPCAS hosted the 85th Annual Meeting of the Colorado Archaeological Society. If you missed it or want to rewatch some of the presentations, you can find all of the recorded events on IPCAS's YouTube. We even made a playlist for you.
  - ON THE BANDWAGON: Our friends at AIA Boulder are now recording and posting lectures! Dr. Steve Lekson gave this season's first talk last week.
  - WE'RE IN A DITCH: Don't forget to check out the recording of August's IPCAS Chapter Meeting, featuring Dr. Mark Mitchell and Paleocultural Research Group's work at the Molander Site \(ND\).
  - ON A ROLL: I simply can't highlight one video from Crow Canyon Archaeological Center. They've been sharing fantastic content throughout the pandemic and it keeps getting better. It's worth spending your time to watch their programming. Shout out to Dr. Cathy Cameron and Dr. Colleen Strawhacker!
